

which are subject to regulation pursuant to a recommendation of the Commission and which were taken from the regulatory area in such manner or in such circumstances as would tend to diminish the effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the Commission; and

(2) The entry into the United States, from any country when vessels of such country are being used in the conduct of fishing operations in the regulatory area in such manner or in such circumstances as would tend to diminish the effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the Commission, of fish in any form of those species which are subject to regulation pursuant to a recommendation of the Commission and which were taken from the regulatory area;

(3) The entry into the United States, from any country when vessels of such country engage in repeated and flagrant fishery operations in the regulatory area which seriously threaten the achievement of the objectives of the Commission's recommendations, of fish in any form of these species which are under investigation by the Commission and which were taken from the regulatory area.

(b) By letter of February 18, 1976, the Secretary of State concurred in the promulgation of the regulations in this part. Such regulations are designed to implement the provisions of section 6(c) of the Act with respect to import controls and to proscribe procedures for the establishment of restrictions on imports of tuna and tuna-like fish whenever such action shall be deemed warranted.

§ 285.83 Investigations authorized.

(a) The Assistant Administrator will make, from time to time, such inquiries and investigations as may be necessary to keep himself and other interested persons currently informed regarding the nature and effectiveness of the measures for the implementation of the Commission's recommendations concerning those activities which are being carried out by foreign countries whose vessels engage in fishing within the regulatory area. In making a finding, as to:

(1) Whether or not fish in any form of those species which are subject to regulation by the Commission are being taken from the regulatory area in a manner or under such circumstances as would tend to diminish effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the Commission; or

(2) Whether or not a country is condoning the use of vessels in the conduct of fishing operations in the regulatory area in such a manner or under such circumstances that would tend to diminish the effectiveness of the conservation recommendations of the Commission; or

(3) Whether or not a country is condoning the use of vessels in repeated and flagrant fishing operations which seriously threaten the achievement of the objectives of the Commission's recommendations, the Assistant Administrator will take into account, among such other considerations as may appear to be pertinent in a particular case, the following factors:

(i) Whether or not the country provides or causes to be provided to the Commission pertinent statistics on a timely basis;

(ii) Whether or not the country has in force conservation measures applicable to its own fishermen adequate for the implementation of the Commission's recommendations;

(iii) Whether or not the country has in force measures for the control of landings in its ports of species subject
